

Transnational learning through local experimenting (Translearn)

Final Workshop – Programme

March 18-19, 2009, Sannäs Manor, Porvoo, Finland

(www.sannaskartano.fi/index_eng.html)

Registration starting on the 17th of March and accommodation available

Wednesday, March 18th

12.00 Lunch

13.30 Opening of the workshop
Kari Lilja: Background of the workshop and its objectives

Session 1: Redefinition of Roles in Global Value Constellations, Changing Competition Models and Financial Markets (Chair Sigrid Quack)

14.00 Gary Herrigel and Jonathan Zeitlin: Inter-Firm Relations in Global Manufacturing: Disintegrated Production and Its Globalization

14.30 Comment: Phil Almond

14.40 Discussion

15.00 Break

15.15 Richard Whitley: Changing competition models: the effects of internationalisation, technological change and academic expansion on dominant economic logics

15.45 Comment: Antti Kasvio

15.55 Discussion

16.15 Glenn Morgan: The changing topographies of financial markets in the current era

16.45 Comment: Risto Tainio

16.55 Discussion

Session 2: Globalisation and the Changing Contextual Setting (Chair Peer Hull Kristensen)

17.15 Collective Sense-Making

17.45 Closing of the first session

19.00 Dinner

Greetings from the Nordic Council by Erkki Tuomioja:
Is there a future for the Nordic Model?

Thursday, March the 19th

Session 3: Globalization, the Nordic Model and Comparative Research-Based Observations
(Chair Marie-Laure Djelic)

09.00 Peer Hull Kristensen: New recipes for globalization: experimentalist forms of economic organization and enabling welfare institutions

09.30 Marko Jaklic: Slovenia as a test case

09.45 Comments, questions and discussion

10.30 Break

Session 4: Exploring Inter-linkages between Subsystems, Systemic Levels, Unexpected Situational Triggers and the Dynamics of Change (Chair Richard Whitley)

10.45 Axel van den Berg: Enterprise restructuring and transitional labour markets

11.15 Comment: Pertti Koistinen

11.25 Discussion

11.45 Charles Sabel: Contracting for innovation in inter-firm collaboration: implications of the open innovation context

12.15 Comment: Raimo Lovio

12.25 Discussion

12.45 Lunch

Session 5: Path-Dependency, Systemic Differences, Spaces for Experimentation, Practise-Based Observations: What Could Transnational Learning Mean? (Chair Glenn Morgan)

14.00 Jill Rubery: Surviving the EU? The future for national employment models in Europe

14.30 Comment: Pauli Kettunen

14.40 Discussion

- 15.00 Sigrd Quack: Civil society campaigns and transnational private labor regulation: comparing athletic footwear and toys (written with Sabrina Zajak)
- 15.30 Comment: Tapio Bergholm
- 15.40 Discussion
- 16.00 Break
- 16.15 Jonathan Zeitlin: OMC as a method for transnational learning: observations from EU-level policy making and national sectoral practices
- 16.45 Comment: Juho Saari
- 16.55 Discussion
- Session 6: General Discussion (Chair Kari Lilja)
- 17.15 Reflections on the dialogue and implications for research programs of the future
- 18.00 Closing of the workshop
- 19.00 Dinner

Friday, March 20th

Informal meetings and networking after breakfast

- 12.00 Lunch

Organizing Committee

Prof. Kari Lilja, Prof. Peer Hull Kristensen, Dr. Eli Moen, Senior Researcher Åge Mariussen, Prof. Christer Peterson, Prof. Marko Jaklic

Scientific Steering Committee

Prof. Marie-Laure Djelic, Prof. Glenn Morgan, Prof. Sigrd Quack, Prof. Charles Sabel, Prof. Jonathan Zeitlin

